Privacy Statement

The National Privacy Principles apply to and are adhered to by Canberra Deakin Football Club.

Management and Staff of Canberra Deakin Football Club respect your privacy and any personal information which it may collect from you for the purposes of providing our members with all of its facilities/services. We are committed to protecting this information.

We will collect personal information from you if you:

- Apply to become a member of Canberra Deakin Football Club;
- Request renewal of your membership to Canberra Deakin Football Club;
- When you use Club facilities and services;
- If you ask to be included on a mailing list; or
- If you submit your personal information to us for any other reason.

We are required to collect, retain and disclose some information under Australian Law (i.e.; GST Legislation, The Liquor Act 1975, The Gaming Machine Act, The Associations Incorporation Act & The Corporations Act).

Members are taken to consent to direct marketing upon acceptance of their membership/renewal applications. Please contact management on (02) 6281 6962 should you wish to remove your name from any direct marketing lists. If you do not contact us directly we will assume that your consent stands.

Guests of our members, temporary members and all other persons other than financial members are required by law to sign in upon arrival at Canberra Deakin Football Club. Please be aware that information you provide at the time of signing in may inadvertently be observed by members and other guest of the Club.

All persons who enter the Canberra Deakin Football Club are taken to consent to:

- Being recorded on video: and
- The Club using the video to protect its interests.

Your information may be used for demographic data and aggregate use by Canberra Deakin Football Club, its partners or our advertisers. This information is not linked to any personal information which could identify you. Please note, the Club may not be able to provide you with all of its facilities/services, or do business with you should you elect not to provide all of the requested information.

We will use your personal information to keep you informed of the Club's services or those of or subsidiary, parent or related entity or business partners of Club's with which we have reciprocal arrangements (direct marketing). To have them send you similar information, to provide third party service providers or others (Australian or overseas) that help provide a product, facility or service of the Club to you. To provide information to advisers (i.e.: lawyers or accountants) if necessary and as permitted by the National Privacy Principles. To store or transfer your information to a subsidiary, parent or related entity (Australian or overseas) and to fulfil our contractual duties (if applicable) and enforce your contractual duties (if applicable) to the Club.

The Canberra Deakin Football Club's website contains links to other websites. We are not responsible for the privacy principles of other entities. If these links take you to chat rooms, forum, message boards or similar communications your personal or sensitive information may be made public. We urge you to exercise caution in proceeding here.

We encourage you to contact management on (02) 6281 6962 should you have any issues you wish to discuss whether it be of a privacy nature or any other matter.
